conducted, we do object to their sailing under FALSE COLORS. We would call the attention of the public to the glaring advertisements, in which a firm alloging to sell goods at ONE PRICE (?), marks an article one day at $6 50, and the next day at $2 00, and perhaps to-morrow the article may be worth $3100, in that ONE PRICE (!) establishment. The persons who purchase the article at $6.50 and note the same article advertised on the following day at $2,00, cannot but feel that they

Such proceedure surely has not the tendency to win public appreciation or an increase of trade, but manifestly demonstrates the fact that trade have been the victims of imposition and misplaced confidence.
